RACMA07
HEALTHCARE TECHNOLOGY: THE FUTURE

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

Wednesday 29 August 2007

1500	Registration and speakers support centre opens Speakers support centre supported by Cerner
1500	Venue: Boulevard 2 New Fellows meeting
1600	Venue: Boulevard 2 RACMA accreditation consultation
1700	Venue: Boulevard 2 RACMA Annual General Meeting
1800	Registration and speakers support centre closes
1800 – 1930	Welcome cocktail reception and trade exhibition opening Palm Ballroom, Level 4, Holiday Inn Surfers Paradise

Thursday 30 August 2007

0730	Registration and speakers support centre opens
0830	Trade exhibition opens
0900 0915	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Richard Ashby Welcome & official opening The Hon Stephen Robertson MP, Minister for Health Opening plenary Health technology 2020 Professor Gerry FitzGerald Professor of Health, Queensland University of Technology
1000	Morning tea: trade exhibition Supported by The Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia
1030 1100 1145	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Andrew Johnson Health technology: the future Nanotechnology: big things from small technologies Professor Peter Gray Director, Australian Institute of Bioengineering & Nanotechnology, University of Queensland Vaccines to the developing world and the promises of new technologies Professor Michael Good Director, The Queensland Institute of Medical Research The future of diagnostics Dr Debra Graves CEO, Royal College of Pathologists of Australasia
1230	Lunch: trade exhibition Supported by Latitudes Medical Recruitment
1230	Venue: Boulevard 1 RACMA Council meeting and Past President's lunch

1330 1400 1430	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Judy Graves The assessment, adoption and diffusion of health technology Government and new health technology Dr Stephen Blamey Chair, Medical Services Advisory Committee Early detection systems in Australasia Professor Brendon Kearney Director, HealthPACT Using health technology assessment in Victoria for investing and divesting in health technology and its potential uses for service planning Dr Mary Boyd Turner Senior Medical Advisor, Department of Human Services, VIC		Venue: Boulevard 3 Chair: Lee Gruner RACMA Margaret Tobin Challenge Award RACMA Candidates public speaking competition – open audience
1500	Afternoon tea: trade exhibition
1530 1600	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Michael Daly Future technology and the workforce Medical education: 2015 Professor Wayne Gibbon Deputy Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences and medicine, Bond University High fidelity simulation: medical education for the real world? Dr Victoria Brazil Emergency Physician and Director, Medical Education Solutions	1530 1545 1600 1615	Venue: Boulevard 3 Chair: Amanda Dines Free papers Quality improvement training: is this the promised land of doctor engagement Dr Grant Phelps Ballarat Gastroenterology and Lee Gruner Quality Directions Australia The birth of the hospitalist at Ryde Hospital Dr Mary GT Webber Hospitalist, Ryde Hospital Work practises and fatigue in health providers: diagnosing a system problem Dr Joel Dulhunty Principle House Officer, Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital Helping doctors help themselves: organisational strategies to support at risk junior medical staff Dr Alison Dwyer Director, Medical Services Melbourne Health
1630	Registration & speakers support centre closes Trade exhibition closes
1730 - 1830	Venue: Boulevard 2 College Ceremony and Langford Oration Conferment of fellowships and guest orator Oration to be delivered by Professor John Pearn Professor of Paediatrics & Child Health, University of Queensland
1930	Meeting gala dinner La Medusa Ballroom, Palazzo Versace, Gold Coast

Friday 31 August 2007

0800	Registration and speakers support centre opens
0830	Trade exhibition opens
	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: David Alcorn Health technology: industry perspectives
0900	eHealth: Australia vs. England 2015 Paul Willma Director Operations (Asia Pacific), Cerner Corporation
0930	Health technology: a legal perspective Penelope Eden Senior Associate, Minter Ellison
1000	Does healthcare technology really improve health outcomes? Dr Mark Parrish Associate Partner, Healthcare, IBM
1030	Morning tea: trade exhibition Supported by Minter Ellison Lawyers
	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Donna O'Sullivan Health technology: the human dimension
1100	Health technology and human performance: change secrets Damien Woods Partner, Accenture, Health & Life Sciences Practice
1130	Virtual medicine: the future of telehealth Professor Richard Wootton Director, Centre for Online Learning, University of Queensland
1200	Ethics and health technology: an oxymoron Dr Karen Detering Respiratory Physician, Respecting Patient Choices Program
1230	Lunch: trade exhibition Supported by IBM
	Venue: Paradise 3
1230	CEP Program Committee meeting
	Venue: Boulevard 2 Chair: Craig Margetts Real technology: real issues
1330	Long term outcomes of percutaneous endoscopic gastrostomy (PEG) feeding in young people with profound disability Associate Professor Lynette Lee Staff Specialist Rehabilitation Medicine, Sydney South West Area Health Service
1345	Health technology: a challenge to clinical governance Dr Alison Dwyer Director, Medical Services, Melbourne Health
1415	Can artificial intelligence be an aid to ethical decision making for medical administrators? Dr Bernie Brenner University of Otago, New Zealand
1435	Successful health IT: CEO or CIO? Dr John O'Donnell CEO, Mater Health Services Brisbane and Mal Thatcher CIO, Mater Health Services Brisbane
1500	Afternoon tea: trade exhibition
	Venue: Boulevard 2 Facilitator: Richard Ashby
1530	Closing session The great debate: 'Health technology will save the human race' Affirmative team: Negative team:

	Dr Andrew Johnson Executive Director Medical Services, Queensland Speaker to be confirmed Speaker to be confirmed	Dr Michael Daly Director, Southern Area Health Service, Clinical Governance Unit, Health Penelope Eden Senior Associate, Minter Ellison Dr Mark Parrish Associate Partner, Healthcare, IBM Queensland Health
1630	Meeting concludes Registration and speakers support centre closes	